Alan and Betsy are pleased to announce the arrival of their granddaughter, Liat Rose, born on Rosh Chodesh Shevat to Judd and Elana Bogdansky in Jerusalem, Israel.

PURIM IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER!

As you know, giving gifts on Purim, known as Mishloach Manot, is a mitzvah which celebrates a miracle of the Jewish people long ago and fosters greater unity within the Jewish people. In this spirit, our shul also uses the theme of Mishloach Manot as an opportunity to have an important fundraiser for the Sisterhood, which provides weekly Seudat Shelishit as well as charitable gifts and material support for our youth programs.

All OSTNS members are encouraged to participate in our Purim fundraiser by logging onto www.happypurim.com. If you have misplaced the letter containing your unique login code for the Happy Purim site, please contact the shul office at (202) 882-7225 or samara.schreiner@gmail.com. We will be happy to provide assistance.
