Ohev Sholom — The National Synagogue®

Volume 7, Issue 47

August 5, 2016

ANNOUNCEMENTS

This Shabbat, we welcome Camp Morasha! They will be joining us for davening on Friday night and Shabbat Morning, and we look forward to the extra Shabbat ruach they will bring to our shul.

Please note that there is no communal kiddush following Shabbat morning services, and the Social Hall is reserved for Camp Morasha.

Mazel tov to Samara Schreiner and Kevin Shinaberry (and big brother Akiva) on the birth of a baby boy!

Volunteers needed! We are seeking a few dedicated volunteers to help with issues related to our cemetery. Please email Harold Furchtgott-Roth at president@ostns.org if you may be interested.

Lost & Found items will be on display next to the stage through this weekend. After that, all items will be donated. If you lost a piece of jewelry, please contact the front office.

Since Talmudic times, Chevrae Kadisha (Holy Societies) have prepared Jews for burial by conducting a tahara, a ritual washing and purification. If you are interested in participating in this deeply meaningful ritual, please contact Rachel Leiser Levy at rleiserlevy@gmail.com or (301) 412-2688 or Menashe Katz at menashe@thekatzes.net or (301) 244-8316 to learn about volunteering with the Chevra Kadisha of Greater Washington. No prior tahara experience is necessary.

Reflections for Tisha B'av | Sunday, Aug. 14, 2 PM

Presented by the Beltway Vaad

Location: Beth Joshua Congregation, 13300 Arctic Avenue, Rockville, MD

What is the messianic age? On Tisha B'av we pray for redemption from suffering. Please join us for an important conversation about what we look to when we pray for a messianic era. We will study texts about this central question in Jewish faith, and it will be followed by an interdenominational panel focusing on how the different denominations of Judaism approach this question. For more information, contact office@bethjoshua.org or visit: <http://ostns.org/Calendar/Detail/537/2016-08-14.php>
